1858

My Dear Shaw

I was but once at the Societys house and found

you were engaged with some people

[0002]

in the library
I had nothing to say. Sir Roderick asked me to meet him and I did so and walked
to the end of the street with him then went to the Foreign

[0003]

Office where I was detained
till past three and having another engagement at two! I hurried up and for two reasons did not call again. 1st I had nothing to say and did [not]

[0004]

wish to disturb
you for nothing 2<sup>d</sup> I had an engagement up

here & was more than 1/2 an hour behind
my time. I think Wyon has got on well.

I am &c
