6 April 1865

My Dear Webb

I am sincerely
glad that no operation
is to be performed on your knee. I confess I was very anxious about
it for it was not a case of knee
only but of leg &
perhaps more - Ferguson must be a brick -

My brother in America tells

[0002]

me this morning that he will do his best to secure wild rice for you but it is not to be had before the fall of the year. He has written to a friend near Lake Simcoe to procure some from the Indians
who gather it for their own use in winter. and also to
a seedsman in Lanark. When he was living in Lanark he says
we had some of it
growing in shallow places

[0003]

but the wild ducks
ate it up before it was ripe. On some lakes it is very plentiful, and if it is to be had at all

this year he will secure it & send it to Liverpool for
you

I mention this though I know from Kirk that you have got a letter as it
shews that the ducks are fond of
it - & that he attended to my request &
will in time secure it [0004]
fish coming out -
about this size
water getting so warm
that the hands dont
get benumbed in working in the water
a good many had died above Reservoir
not a single fish
runs up though
above the "ladder"
it was 50 ° on Sunday
I got a finer gauze
put in the gas
house place to keep them from going away till you come down
[0005]

the trout are rising
very much at the
quarry ponds but they must have put the eggs back in themselves. I should like very much to dissect & see, but wont
till you come &
say yes.

I have a

commission
to all the chiefs
between the Portuguese
& the Pasha of Egypt & Abyssinia
[0006]
and particular care
to say that I have no
salary & no pension
can be claimed.
I mean to live after they are all dead &
rotten and always get the petition answered so "Give us this day our daily bread"
I dont mean to
make any howl
about it but with love to Olivia & MrsW

I am &c

David Livingstone

We lunch tomorrow with Mr
Arkwright & then go to see some place over there [0007]
Weather delightful!!! Absolutely so and no mistake
[0008]
My [...] might too - When are you coming?
[0009]
children all beautifully well -

I have taken it upon me to write & tell Lord Dalhousie all about Kirk
