Shupanga 7th July 1862

My Dear Waller

Thanks for your very welcome letters & also for the silk under shirts the most comfortable things I ever wore. We must go to Johanna for various reasons - and intend to start in a day or two.
This is a grievous delay as the water is now very low. Something has occurred to prevent Captain Oldfield sending [0002] a ship between 20th May & 1st June as he intended.

Rae was very ill with dysentery, and I took him away to breathe the sea air - came up on 12th June & put the steamer in the water - and everything into her - and hearing from a Lieutenant Burlton
who has volunteered, that the Penguin past Quillimane on 15th ult without giving us any provisions. I must go & get them. This is a grievous loss of time but it will all turn out for the best [0003]

We shall not meet old

Seedy as he died of cholera about the beginning of this year - & will have some work beating back.

If Chibisa could be aided without compromising the mission with the Portuguese it might be done - but he was the active agent in passing the Tette slavehunters up and across Shire to hunt the Manganja and I am not quite sure but he may have a hand in aiding those now in the Ajawa camp [0004] you can trust none of them - they are degraded to the lowest point the devil can effect moral and we can scarcely enter into their feelings in the unprotected state in which they spend their lives - I have told Chibisa's people what I think of his conduct in aiding the Azungo to do to the Manganja what they now do to him and will write immediately to the Governor against Belshore.

The conduct of the black English will not [0005]
hurt you much. The people soon learn the difference and will value you the more.
I am sorry for it however. I told Chibisa's people that though I had brought them they were not slaves and were accountable for their actions as much as he is himself. I hope they have not gone up by the cataracts as that would place difficulties in our way in the transport.

I bespoke 2 bales of calico from Vianna [0006]
and intend to ship them in a day or two but Scudmore says that you dont need any for six months at least I shall bring them at any rate. I bought a small cask of wine such as we spoke of 2 for ourselves &
1 for you. It costs £5 and Vianna says will be between 50 & 60 bottles. That too we shall bring - when we come say 2 months
hence.
[0007]

I have suggested to Procter to begin translation as a means of reducing the language. If you all spent several hours a day at it you would soon discover the advantage. The product need not be thought of as fit for the press but to fit you for more important works I told Scudamore this but he forgets & I repeat it to Procter & you.

Thanks for your kind sympathies
In return I say [0008]

cherish exalted thought of the great work you have undertaken. It is a work which if faithful you will look back to with satisfaction while the eternal ages roll on their everlasting course. The Devil will do all he can to hinder you - by efforts from without & from within but remember Him who is with you & will be with alway.

The Governor of Tette has got the sanction [0009]
of his big brother
The Governor General of Mosambique to prosecute slave trade on land. I have written a despatch which will place the conduct of the brothers in its true light - probably it will only take effect when the big brother is gone but his successor will be the better of the information now given. I have proved that what the Governor [0010] General says about slave trade being still the law of the land cannot be true except by an oversight which the statesmen of Lisbon will be sure to remedy.

The packet of letters that came last by your return canoe was at once delivered to José M. Nunes

of Quillimane who was here and he took them off to that port the claret; dont you [0011]
wish you may get it
We never saw it.
Miss Mac. may have exchanged it for something that bites the tongue more than that wishy vashing stuff claret.

With kind salutations to Dickinson &c

I am &c

David Livingstone

In my letter to the Makololo I give them some news. Then tell them that I have heard of their deeds & will if they live [0012]
quietly take them across country to their own land as soon as possible. I hope they have not disturbed the people adjacent to the cataracts. I add that they must not allow you to be disturbed. If you had a hundred of them bad as they are I would back you to stop all the Chicunda slave hunters and all the Azanga too 26 who went up with us to Sekeletu have run away from him. I dont tell them this except in a general way
