5th January 1857

My Dear Commander Hoskins

for so I suppose you now are I recieved your note of the first only this morning and referred to you as an authority
at a meeting of merchants in the Mansion House from which I have just returned. I am glad

to hear of your welfare and often remembered you in my solitary way
accross the continent
as I perused with great delight your kind present of
"Kosmos" I made
enquiries respecting you of Captain Need
when I met him
in London. Do you know anything of Dallas since he left

[0003]

the service. You would not come with me. Had you done so I would have despatched you
from the Zambesi up to where Captain Burton has now gone. He would have been through friendly tribes. My route more difficult was through an enemy's country

only I wanted a pathway out by the Zambesi [0004]

Please draw up an outline of what you know of the depth of water at the mouth of the Luabo, the safety or otherwise of the ports at the mouths of the Zambesi and say in a note apart from it whether you will allow me to send it to the Times in connection with & conformation of my letter. Give your proper title, services &c just as you would like it published & I shall send the manuscript to the Editor

I hope you will find it convenient to oblige Yours most truly David Livingstone
