

Letter to James Loudon, [30 December 1856?]

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Tuesday Morning

Doctor Loudon

Dear Sir

Will you
favour me with a call as soon as may be convenient to you. I have a bad cold and
as it is expected that I employ
my voice soon
[0002]

I wish if possible
to get rid of the hoarseness. If you think a
mustard plaister
advisable please
bring it with
you. I should like an aperient
and the resin of Jalap with calomel
suits me better
in the form of pill. than some [0003]

others in liquid form but I shall take anything you may consider better

Pray excuse my apparent dictation & oblige yours
Most Truly

David Livingston

Burnbank Road