1857

My Dear Shaw

I mention you in the preface
thanking you & Sir Roderick
for the kind way in which you
withheld my manuscript

[0002]

I mention Admiral Smythe in the body of the work Sent him the
prefatory remarks of Toynbee that he might extract
a note as a preface for my table & send the whole on to you

[0003]

Unfortunately
my proofs are all in a box
we have left in England
I shall send you what you mention as soon as I return
about the end of the month
What part of it do

[0004]

you wish? I fully appreciate your invariable kindness to the end I think that last was the crown of all In the way I bring it in you con trast with advantage
with my other friends Ever
Yours

D Livingstone
