My Dear M^r Murray

Sir Roderick
thinks that I had better reply curtly
to a series of letters translated from the Lisbon official journal & published by Stanford a page would be [0002]

enough or two pages at most. The pamphlet seizes
upon one foray
by a man called Belchior as the whole matter though for the conduct of the Governor of Tette I expressed thanks. I have put Rowleys
[0003]

letter in a footnote
which disclaims the inference they have drawn & charges all bishop Mackenzies disaster
on the Portuguese

I had answered
the claim for the discovery of Lake Nyassa
in the appendix

but left it out [0004]
Do you think it would be worth while putting a single leaf of an appendix - in in reply to this thing. It proves that the Portuguese statesmen are more implicated
than I imagined
The man is employed
by Colonel Mumble
Leal. We go to London
about Wednesday
next. I am &c David Livingstone
