    My Dear M<sup>r</sup> Murray
    You had better keep the medal till
I come up myself
We made a call on an old Mauritius
family in Oxford Square on our way and they [0002]
gave us some luncheon so the time passed over in which we could have found
you & did not call, to say we had met a first cousin of yours
in New college who was very civil to us, especially [0003]
to Mrs L. with whom he sat at dinner.
they gave us a
good reception in the theatre. I had declined to give a lecture on Tuesday but if I had known

I would have done it [even] at the expense of a sore throat [0004]

I shall bring Kane
the first time
I come - that fellow Arrowsmith always does that. You may remember I gave him all about six weeks ago except one point which has not yet come
and it would only be a correction of what is already published if I dont garrotte him I wont do what he deserves

D Livingstone

He promised me a proof a month ago and another on Wednesday last
